

The diagram shows a sequence of binary strings of increasing length, where each string is composed of 'i's and 'iii' blocks. The strings are color-coded by their length: red for 1, yellow for 2, blue for 3, orange for 4, and green for 5. The diagram illustrates how the strings grow and how they can be combined to form longer strings.